

UA OLD MAIN Exhibit Specification FINAL

| # | IMAGE   | SOURCE | TRACKING #                                  | LOCATION                 | LABEL DESCRIPTION  |
|---|---|--------|---|--------------------------|--|
| 1 |    | SPC    | azu_uap_old_main_1890_1899_h.tif            | Cruciform 200N Reception | Old Main, c. 1890 A man leading two horses stands to the southwest of Old Main. This is probably the earliest image of the front (west side) of the building. Facsimile of a photo by W. V. WhitmanUniversity of Arizona Library, Special Collections  |
| 2 |    | SPC    | azu_uap_views_1890_1910_j_III_m.tif         | Cruciform 200N Reception | University of Arizona, 1902 A group of men stand in the foreground of Old Main with the snow-covered Santa Catalina Mountains in the background. Facsimile of a photo by Al BeuhmanUniversity of Arizona Library, Special Collections: Collection of Richard L. Drane, U of A class of 1903.   |
| 3 |   | SPC    | azu_uap_snow_scenes_1912_1918_m-Cropped.tif | Cruciform 200N Reception | Old Main, Snow 1913 Tucson's coldest day was recorded on January 7, 1913 when the temperature dropped to 6 degrees fahrenheit. This photo was taken during that winter, but the exact date is unknown. Facsimile of a photo by Al BeuhmanUniversity of Arizona Library Special Collections   |
| 4 |  | SPC    | azu_uap_old_main_1890_1899_c_n114.tif       | Cruciform 200N Reception | Old Main Construction, 1889 This is the only existing Haynes photo of the building construction. Haynes was paid $60 in April 1889 "for photographing the School of Mines building." The view is towards the Southwest. Facsimile of a photo by W. P. HaynesUniversity of Arizona Library, Special Collections  |
| 5 |  | SPC    | azu_uap_old_main_1890_1899_b.tif            | Cruciform 200N Reception | Memorial Fountain, 1920 On January 31, 1920, the Memorial Fountain was dedicated with General John J. Pershing as the guest of honor. The fountain was the gift of Alexander Berger in honor of his nephew and all UA students who lost their lives in World War I. Facsimile of a photo by an unknown photographerUniversity of Arizona Library, Special Collections. |
| 6 |  | SPC    | azu_ms437_b5_0015-2.tif                     | Cruciform 200N Reception | Old Main, 1890 Officially designated "Old Main" in 1927, this building occupies the historical and physical center of campus and was listed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1972. Facsimile of a photo by Leo GoldschmidtUniversity of Arizona Library, Special Collections: Leo Goldschmidt Collection, MS437  |

|    |   |              |   |                              |   |
|----|---|--------------|---|------------------------------|---|
| 7  |    | SPC          | azu_uap_old_main_interior_1896_1910_b.tif   | Cruciform 200S               | Territorial Museum, 1899 In 1893 the Arizona Legislative Assembly established a Territorial Museum "to collect materials of all kinds illustrating the resources and development of the region." Originally located on the second floor of Old Main, its collection included historical relics, Indian artifacts, rocks and minerals. Facsimile of a photo by J. W. ToumeyUniversity of Arizona Library Special Collections |
| 8  |    | SPC          | azu_uap_old_main_interior_1896_1910_c-17inch.tif  | Cruciform 200S & Office 210B | Biology Classroom, 1897 Located on the second floor of Old Main on the west side of the south wing, this biology classroom shows "teaching tools" that could be neatly stored in specially-built cabinets. Facsimile of a photo by unknown photographerUniversity of Arizona Library, Special Collections   |
| 9  |   | SPC          | OM Drawing Combo.tif  | Office 210A                  | Old Main (School of Mines), 1889 Design drawings by the architect, James Miller Creighton, show the first floor plan and building elevations. The second floor plan duplicates the first floor, though an interior stair was later added. Facsimile of a photo by Willis P. HaynesUniversity of Arizona Library, Special Collections:Gift of George J. Roskrug in 1901   |
| 10 |  | SPC          | azu_uap_maps_and_aerial_views_1930s-1940sg_Aerial_late_1937_aerial_view_with_Old_Main_in_center.tif | Room 227 Board Room          | The University of Arizona, 1937 The Steward Observatory, Bear Down Gym and sports fields border Cherry Avenue, marking the eastern edge of campus in this 1937 aerial photo. Facsimile of a photo by Ben D. GrossUniversity of Arizona Library, Special Collections   |
| 11 |  | UA Relations | aerial-2013-Cropped-30x32.tif   | Room 227 Board Room          | The University of Arizona, 2008 This aerial view looking east shows Old Main in the center of the mall and the eastern campus border at Campbell Avenue. Facsimile of a photo by Jacob ChinnUniversity of Arizona Alumni Association  |
| 12 |  | SPC          | azu_uap_old_main_interior_1896_1910_f.tif   | Office 202A                  | Old Main Library, 1893 In 1893, when there were about 700 bound volumes, the gateway, partitions and a desk used in Arizona's exhibit at the World's Columbian Exposition in Chicago were installed in the second floor library. Facsimile of a photo by unknown photographerUniversity of Arizona Library, Special Collections   |

|    |   |     |  |             |   |
|----|---|-----|--|-------------|---|
| 13 |    | SPC | azu_uap_views_1890_1910_i-crop.tif                           | Office 202A | Old Main, ca. 1904 This view looks north with a cannon in the foreground. "Cannon blew up in 1904 – knocked out every window in Old Main." Facsimile of a photo by an unknown photographerUniversity of Arizona Library, Special Collections:Collection of Richard L. Drane, U of A class of 1903.   |
| 14 |    | SPC | azu_uap_old_main_1920s-1950s_a RIGHT LIGHTENED.tif           | Office 214  | Campus Panorama, 1920 This panoramic view shows Old Main and the cactus gardens between the newly completed Mines and Engineering building to the left and Agriculture Hall and Herring Hall to the right. Facsimile of a photo by unknown photographerUniversity of Arizona Library Special Collections  |
| 15 |    | SPC | azu_uap_wildcat_mascots_f2_b.tif                             | Office 214  | Wilbur and Friend, ca. 1960's As a substitute for a live wildcat mascot, Wilbur made his first appearance at the UA-Texas Tech football game on November 7, 1959. Wilbur was the creation of Richard Heller, '62 and John Paquette, '60 in a simple costume funded by the Associated Students. Facsimile of a photo by unknown photographerUniversity of Arizona Library, Special Collections |
| 16 |   | SPC | azu_uap_Athletics-Basketball_1905-1919_d_Basketball_1909.tif | Office 214  | Basketball Team, 1909 The Arizona Daily Star of October 18, 1896 noted that "basketball has been introduced on the campus..."; but it was not until 1904 that an official UA men's basketball team was established. Facsimile of a photo by unknown photographerUniversity of Arizona Library, Special Collections  |
| 17 |  | SPC | azu_uap_music_dance_folder15_e.tif                           | Office 202G | Dance Class, 1925 Members of the girls "natural dancing" class, an elective course that was part of the women's athletics program, pose in front of Maricopa Hall, the women's dormitory. Facsimile of a photo by Beuhman StudiosUniversity of Arizona Library, Special Collections   |
| 18 |  | SPC | azu_uap_Band-Marching_Band-folder1_band_sitting_on_steps.tif | Office 202G | Cadet Band, 1902 The UA marching band poses on the steps of Old Main. Seven of the twelve band members were from the Preparatory Department (ages 14-17). Facsimile of a photo by unknown photographerUniversity of Arizona Library, Special Collections  |
| 19 |  | SPC | azu_uap_engineering_bld_interior_f12.b.tif                   | Office 202C | Mineral &amp; Petrology Laboratory, 1929 In 1918, the mineral classrooms were moved from Old Main to the new Mines and Engineering building. The geometric forms seen in the cases and on the desks are models of crystals. Facsimile of a photo by unknown photographerUniversity of Arizona Library, Special Collections  |

|    |   |     |   |                      |   |
|----|---|-----|---|----------------------|---|
| 20 |    | SPC | azu_uap_bear_down_gym_b_m-Enlarged.tif                                    | Office 202C          | Bear Down Gym, 1926 In October 1926, UA quarterback and student body president, John "Button" Salmon died from injuries sustained in a car accident. His final words to coach J. F. "Pop" McKale were "Tell them.....tell the team to bear down." "Bear Down" was adopted as the school's athletic motto and painted on the roof of the completed gym in 1927. Facsimile of a photo by unknown photographerUniversity of Arizona Library, Special Collections |
| 21 |    | SPC | azu_azswp_womensridingclasses_fl1_CROPPED.tif                             | Office 202D          | Women's Riding Class, c. 1930-35 The sport that first brought the UA national recognition was polo with the 1924 men's team capturing the Western Collegiate Championship. The Calvalry ROTC also sponsored co-ed riding clubs as seen in this photo. In 1942, Collier's magazine called the University a "College on Horseback." Facsimile of a photo by R. B. StreetsUniversity of Arizona Library, Special Collections                                     |
| 22 |    | SPC | azu_azswp_athletic_football1902_fl_1_a.tif                                | Office 202D          | Football Practice, 1902 This Arizona team was undefeated, winning the Territorial football championship in 1902. The team became the Wildcats following a 1914 football game coached by J. F. "Pop" McKale when the LA times reported, "the Arizona men showed the fight of wildcats." The name stuck and the McKale legend was born. Facsimile of a photo by unknown photographerUniversity of Arizona Library, Special Collections                          |
| 23 |   | SPC | azu_uap_old_main_1890_1899_c_n6510.tif                                    | Office 202F          | Old Main, 1891 This early photo shows the east or rear side of Old Main. A woman stands at the top of the temporary steps and veranda railings have not yet been installed. Facsimile of a photo by W. P. HaynesUniversity of Arizona Library, Special Collections  |
| 24 |  | SPC | azu_uap_1st_Commencement_1895-1943_a_Old_Main_2nd_floor_Assembly_Hall.tif | Office 202F          | First Commencement, 1895 The Assembly Hall on the second floor of Old Main is decorated in the first college colors, sage green and silver, for the 1895 graduation ceremony. The class motto, "In Struggle, Reward," is seen on the back wall. Facsimile of a photo by unknown photographerUniversity of Arizona Library, Special Collections  |
| 25 |  | SPC | azu_uap_swimming_pools_1916_1942_r.tif                                    | Room 212Workroom | First Swimming Pool, ca. 1920's The first swimming pool was constructed in 1916 behind the Shop and Assay Building and remained there until 1942. The pool was referred to in the Board of Regents Annual Report as a "reservoir" for irrigation and fire protection. Facsimile of a photo by unknown photographerUniversity of Arizona Library, Special Collections  |

|           |   |       |   |                               |   |
|-----------|---|-------|---|-------------------------------|---|
| 26        |    | SPC   | azu_uap_events-Aday_b800dpi.tif                       | Room 212ACopy             | "A" Day Rally, 1954-55 The "A" Day Rally was celebrated in downtown Tucson at the intersection of Congress Street and Stone Avenue. The Fox Theatre can be seen in the background. Facsimile of a photo by unknown photographer University of Arizona Library, Special Collections  |
| 27        |    | SPC   | azu_uap_events_a_day_ag.tif                           | Room 212ACopy             | "A" Day Events, 1951 The annual white-washing of the "A" by the freshman students was a University of Arizona tradition each autumn. Facsimile of a photo by unknown photographer University of Arizona Library, Special Collections: Gift of Leslie Johnston, Class of 2008  |
| 28        |    | SPC   | azu-azswp_mapsandaerialviewsearly...1929_fl_a.tif | Room 212Workroom          | The University of Arizona, 1929 Cherry Avenue crosses the center of this westward looking photograph, bordering the polo field at the far left. The stables and corrals are next to the Steward Observatory. The football field is just beyond Bear Down Gym. Facsimile of a photo by unknown photographer University of Arizona Library, Special Collections                 |
| 29        |  | CAPLA | Old Mainoriginal pen & inkrendering from CAPLA    | Room 202BStaff Conference | Old Main Rendering, 1969 Delineated by Lawrence Howe Delafield, Douglas Kenneth Engbretson, Roger Eliot Kerr, Douglas John Robinson, Placido Salmone. Coordinated by Professor Edward Timothy White III, UA College of Architecture. Pen &amp; Ink on boardGift of the University of Arizona College of Architecture, Planning, and Landscape Architecture (CAPLA), 2014 |
| 30        |  | ADMIN | Old Main panoramafrom private donor                   | Office 210B                   | University of Arizona, 1909 Panoramic view of the west side of the University of Arizona campus. Shown left to right are Science Hall, Old Main and the Library and Museum buildings. Facsimile of a photo by West Coast Art Company University of Arizona Library, Special Collections   |
| 31-41 | YEARBOOK COVERSsee attachmentfor images &amp; years         | SPC   |   | Room 201Sage & Silver     | Desert Yearbook Covers, 1921-1994 A selection of University of Arizona Desert yearbook covers reflect a variety of graphic styles and themes through the years. Facsimile of a book cover University of Arizona Library, Special Collections  |

1921

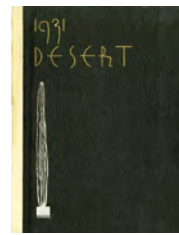

1926

1929

1930

1931

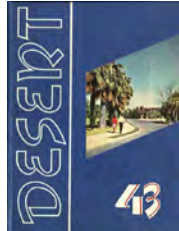

1935

1939

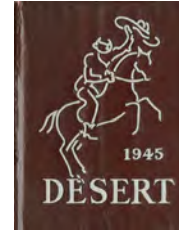

1942

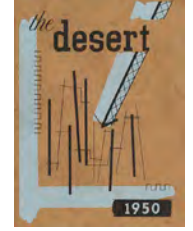

1943

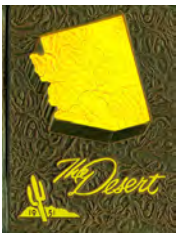

1944

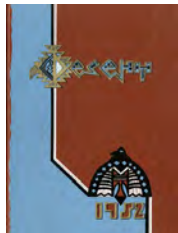

1945

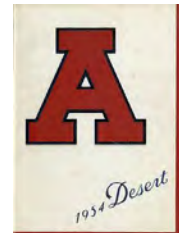

1950

1951

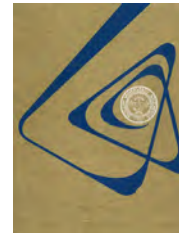

1952

1954

1956

1957

1958

1959

1961

1963

1964

1965

1966

1967

1973

1974

1975

1983

1994

UA Yearbook covers
9x12, no frame/plexiglass on backing